

LunchLottery connects your employees better.

LunchLottery is a cloud solution for larger organizations that enables them to connect employees with new colleagues across all departments and hierarchy levels for lunch. Through its smart matching algorithms, organizations can ‘design serendipity’ and use LunchLottery to bridge the gap between hierarchies, departments or generations.

The administrative effort for your company is minimal: Provide an Excel list of your employees and tell us how frequently you want LunchLottery to happen – that’s all it takes.

LunchLottery is a success story at our company! With nearly 20 different divisions on site LunchLottery allows for divisional and functional relationship building, fostering of collaboration and developing a more holistic business understanding.
